

THE PARISH PULSE

No Other Way

BY PASTOR KOEPEL

Now when they heard this they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?" And Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the Name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to Himself." - Acts 2:37-39

Have you ever heard a statement like this?: "Although I am not a follower of any organized religion, I do believe in a supreme being. My faith says that a loving, Supreme Being will take a person to heaven if they lead a moral life and are sincere in their faith."

A Maryland dentist, Edward Gamson, can readily explain to people like this just how wrong they are. Here's Dr. Gamson's story. Recently, he used 375,000 frequent flyer miles to reserve first-class seats for himself and a friend as they traveled to a conference in Portugal. As long as they were that far, they thought they would pay a quick visit to and see the sights in Granada, Spain. The doctor made it across the Atlantic and switched planes in London. Twenty minutes into his next flight he noticed their British Airways jet was headed west and not south. When Gamson asked the flight attendant, "Why are we headed west to go to Spain?" he was told, "Spain? We're going to the West Indies." It was true. The British ticket agent had booked him on a trip to Grenada in the Caribbean and not Granada in Spain. Since Dr. Gamson's e-tickets didn't have the airport code or the duration of the flight, he ended up going in the wrong direction and to the wrong destination.

The ticket agent's mistake of one letter had made a major difference in the dentist's plans. Not only did he not get his vacation in Spain, he almost missed his conference, and the airline has refused to give him a refund on their mistake. Now here's the point: when Gamson got on that plane, he sincerely -- but wrongly -- believed he was headed for Spain. Even though the dentist was absolutely certain in his beliefs, his sincerity was not able to take him to where he wanted to go. Even more, Gamson found out it does make a difference what plane you get on. That's because, no matter how you might wish it to be otherwise, not all planes are going to take you to Granada.

Taking that information and applying it to our eternal destiny, we can say this: not all beliefs, even those that are held by a good and sincere person, are going to take that individual to heaven. Salvation reality says if someone wants to be forgiven of their sins and be adopted into the family of faith, that person has to have a right faith. On Pentecost, Peter accurately described this right faith when he said, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the Name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit."

If we were to boil down that message, we could say this: there's no other way! So, if you're set on getting to heaven, you had better believe on the crucified and risen Savior who is the only One who can get you there.

I truly look forward to strengthening our faith in our Risen Savior and growing in God's grace with you this upcoming year...and bringing in more true believers along the way.

Stay awesome dear people of the Good Shepherd. Thank you for all you do, and for letting me serve you!

Summer at Good Shepherd

by Keith Casey, Church President

I hope that everyone had a great summer and was able to spend some quality time with family and friends. I would like to thank everyone for making our Service on the Green possible and for the many volunteers who helped make it successful! Fall is just around the corner and our schedules will return to familiar routines including some familiar Church events. All of those events will need volunteers. Please consider giving some of your time and talents to help make them possible.

This Fall, we will return to offering two services on Sundays and we need more ushers. If you are interested in serving your Church as an usher, please reach out to Chad Smith or Fred Kirchenwitz. Additionally, elections for officers and board chair leads will be coming up this fall. If you are asked to serve, please consider giving your gift of time to our Church.

I would like to thank everyone for supporting our church community. We are doing well financially. I do ask everyone to prayerfully consider what you can give, both financially and of time. We can use help in lots of areas and your gift of time is very appreciated.

I would like to thank everyone for all their help in making our church grow and prosper.

Your servant in Christ!

In the Word

by Fred Kirchenwitz, Head of Elders

Pop Quiz: What was the name of the man the disciples cast lots for to replace Judas as one of the twelve?

Now, moving onto my main point.... Growing up watching the game show Jeopardy, I would always do well when the category was the Bible, or Christianity or even if it was as specific as the Old or New Testaments. The answers usually came easily, because after all, mom and dad sent me to parochial school for 8 years and took me to church every Sunday. All that memorization and the Bible stories I heard and read so many times always seemed to stick in my long term memory. I always found it ironic that the contestants on that game show would avoid these categories like the plague. Then it dawned on me that they were not blessed like I was to have parents that cared so much about their spiritual well being. They didn't grow up "IN THE WORD".

I have to admit that I did procrastinate when it came to submitting this letter for the Parish Pulse, but it kind of clicked when last Sunday's Gospel lesson was about Mary and Martha. Just like when I was growing up I had heard that story many times, but I always pictured myself as Mary. You know, the one who got it right by sitting at Jesus' feet and simply listening. Pastor came at it from the angle that we are all a lot more like Martha than we care to admit. How the world's cares and concerns pull us away from the one thing that's needful.

Now that I'm two paragraphs into the letter, you're probably wondering where I'm going with this? My purpose is twofold. First, If you weren't in church on Sunday July 17th, you just got a brief recap of the sermon. Secondly (and more importantly), I would like to give you some ideas about how to be more Mary-like. 1.) Take a few minutes each day to read your Bible. The Portals of Prayer offers a great short devotion that takes maybe 5 minutes to read. 2.) If you're a better listener than a reader go to lhm.org. There is a daily devotion that also lasts 4-5 minutes. 3.) Attend a bible class. There are 4 different options available to you at Good Shepherd. Men's group on Saturday morning from 7-8 am. Another Bible study that follows that one at 8:30 am. Wednesday mornings at 10:30 am, and Sunday mornings at 8:00 am before church.

One of my prayers as an Elder is that our members utilize these opportunities to be more "IN THE WORD". To be sure, the Holy Spirit was working in Mary that day when Martha got so upset with her. I pray that the same Holy Spirit works in you to be more Mary-like!

In His service, Fred Kirchenwitz

Sunday School News

by Nikole Vergin

I am delighted to serve as the Sunday School Superintendent for the next two years. I felt a calling to help with Sunday School, but felt teaching wasn't the best role for me and after hearing about the duties of this role, I knew it would be a good fit. Our family (husband Kyle, Beckett-8, and Hadley-7) has been members of Good Shepherd since 2019. By day, I am a Mortgage Lender at Fortifi Bank.

I am most excited be able to continue this educational opportunity for the children of our congregation and community. I see how much my own kids benefit from Sunday School – learning, making friends, and growing in their faith.

While we were unable to offer Vacation Bible School this year, we are looking forward to next year and will be reviewing when VBS is held. If you have any ideas, please let us know!

Sunday School will start September 18th. Please take a few minutes to sign up your child(ren) so that we may plan accordingly. Sign- up here:

Youth Fun This Fall

by Jen Charles, Board of Education

In just a few months there will be several special opportunities for our youth. September 16-18th there will be a Confirmation Retreat at Camp Luther for our Confirmation youth. This will be a wonderful way to start off another year of education. The retreats held in the past have provided our youth many opportunities to not only grow in their faith but form stronger relationships with each other.

On Friday, November 4th and Saturday the 5th, Good Shepherd will be hosting a Youth Ministry Team from Concordia University. They will be coming here with lots of planned activities for a Lock-in! This will be an amazing night of fun for the youth who attend. This is for youth in grades 6th-8th however high school students are welcome as well. Even though it will be an all-night event, if participants are not available to stay the entire night, they are still encouraged to come and stay as long as possible. There will be more information in the months to come but please try to save the date for this amazingly fun event. the

by Daniel Weiss, Head of Stewardship

Dear friends in Christ,

At the time of this writing, we are just a few (2-3) thousand dollars away from raising the entire amount of money needed for our new sign. I want thank everyone who gave toward this project going back several years now. Your gifts and prayerful support are helping us to launch a new phase of our public ministry in Oshkosh.

With the news sign we will be able to easily and quickly change our messages throughout the church season, update worship times and advertise special community events hosted by Good Shepherd such as the Lenten Meditation.

New Ways to Give:

Recently, Thrivent sent out news that in addition to Choice Dollars, it can process direct gifts to churches and other ministries with ZERO processing fees.

Did you know?

Everyone (not just Thrivent clients) can donate to your organization through our online giving platform. Thrivent pays the online processing fees – so 100% of the donation goes to your cause.

Lower Your Taxes with Qualified Charitable Distributions

I've included a helpful article from fidelity.com that explains how people 70 ½ or older can donate to their charity (or church) of their choice directly from the IRA. This will count toward the mandatory minimum distribution but doesn't count toward taxable income. That means you can continue to give to Good Shepherd or other charities you support but pay with pre-tax income, not post-tax income. At least I think that is what it means. Please read the article and talk with your tax consultant to learn how to do this.

Yours in Christ,

Daniel Weiss
Stewardship Chair

Have you heard about qualified charitable distributions (QCDs)?

The following article was posted on Fidelity.com and can be accessed here: <https://www.fidelity.com/building-savings/learn-about-iras/required-minimum-distributions/qcds>

When planning your IRA withdrawal strategy, you may want to consider making charitable donations through a QCD. A QCD is a direct transfer of funds from your IRA custodian, payable to a qualified charity. QCDs can be counted toward satisfying your required minimum distributions (RMDs) for the year, as long as certain rules are met.

In addition to the benefits of giving to charity, a QCD excludes the amount donated from taxable income, which is unlike regular withdrawals from an IRA. Keeping your taxable income lower may reduce the impact to certain tax credits and deductions, including Social Security and Medicare.

Also, QCDs don't require that you itemize, which due to the recent tax law changes, means you may decide to take advantage of the higher standard deduction, but still use a QCD for charitable giving.

Can I make a QCD? - While many IRAs are eligible for QCDs—Traditional, Rollover, Inherited, SEP (inactive plans only), and SIMPLE (inactive plans only)* —there are requirements:

- You must be 70½ or older to be eligible to make a QCD.
- QCDs are limited to the amount that would otherwise be taxed as ordinary income. This excludes non-deductible contributions.
- The maximum annual amount that can qualify for a QCD is $100,000. This applies to the sum of QCDs made to one or more charities in a calendar year. (If, however, you file taxes jointly, your spouse can also make a QCD from his or her own IRA within the same tax year for up to $100,000.)
- For a QCD to count towards your current year's RMD, the funds must come out of your IRA by your RMD deadline, generally December 31.
- Contributing to an IRA may result in a reduction of the QCD amount you can deduct. (The aggregate amount of deductible IRA contributions you make to your IRA after you turn 70 1/2 will reduce the amount of the QCD that is not includible in your gross income.)

Any amount donated above your RMD does not count toward satisfying a future year's RMD. Funds distributed directly to you, the IRA owner, and which you then give to charity do not qualify as a QCD.

Under certain circumstances, a QCD may be made from a Roth IRA. Roth IRAs are not subject to RMDs during your lifetime, and distributions are generally tax-free. Consult a tax advisor to determine if making a QCD from a Roth is appropriate for your situation.

What kind of charities qualify? - The charity must be a 501(c)(3) organization, eligible to receive tax-deductible contributions.

Tax reporting - A QCD is reported as a normal distribution on IRS Form 1099-R for any non-Inherited IRAs. For Inherited IRAs or Inherited Roth IRAs, the QCD will be reported as a death distribution. Itemization is not required to make a QCD. While the QCD amount is not taxed, you may not then claim the distribution as a charitable tax deduction.

A QCD is not subject to withholding. State tax rules may vary, so for guidance, consult a tax advisor.

When making a QCD, you must receive the same type of acknowledgement of the donation that you would need to claim a deduction for a charitable contribution. A tax advisor can help you determine if both your IRA and charity qualify for QCDs.

Fellowship Updates

by Sharon Leinweber, Fellowship Chair

Can you believe it? 2022 is half over with! Where has the time gone? I say this every year around this time because the year always seems to go by so quickly. Thinking about how fast time is moving, I wanted to stop and reflect back on the year so far. It has been a busy one, something always seems to be going on and it can be hard to catch a breath. I am sure many of you feel that same way. I thought about the resolutions I made for 2022. Have I been working on them as diligently as I should? I know that I could have done better and now feel compelled to focus on them again.

The 7 Ways of Kindness seemed so easy when I first challenged myself back in December. Well, guess what? They are not as easy as I thought because change takes time and practice. So, with that being said, I would like to again share with you the 7 Ways of Kindness and ask you to consider joining me in my resolution for the remainder of 2022.

1. Send an uplifting text to a friend or family member.
2. Let that guy merge into traffic with a waive and a smile.
3. Include intentional moments of kindness, laughter and delight in your daily routine.
4. Go slightly outside of our comfort zone at least once a day to make someone smile.
5. Share a compliment with a friend or co-worker.
6. Reach out to a family member you haven't spoken to for a while.
7. Treat someone to a cup of coffee (a friend, stranger, or even yourself).

And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. Ephesians 4, vs 32

Old and new members alike - still not sure what Fellowship is all about? Please join us the first Tuesday of the month to find out more about what's going on. Everyone is welcome!

Resting From a Great Event

by Daniel Weiss,
Founder and President of Brushfires

Dear Friends in Christ,

Although a few months have passed since we held the Sexual Integrity Leadership Summit in St. Louis, I'd like to share how the event went. More than two hundred people from 23 states came together for three days of learning, fellowship, and worship. Perhaps a dozen people shared with me that this conference was the best they had ever attended. One of our plenary speakers even shared that he was ranking the conference among his top experiences, including his first visits to Jerusalem and Rome. I was also pleased to connect with Michael Saleminck of Lutherans for Life and Tiffany Manor who runs the LCMS Life Office.

Although this feedback is encouraging, the real success was seen in how God met the people that came. Among the many breakouts were self-care sessions that helped people to slow down to receive God's grace and love. One of these was limited to pastors and several of them shared that the time they had was life-changing. Others shared similar stories. Even though most of the attendees are professional church workers, counselors, therapists and ministry leaders, all of us have our own wounds and burdens that still need tending. I'm so thankful that the Holy Spirit created an atmosphere of peace and comfort that allowed so many people to receive His blessings.

This summer I am trying to take some time out of the office with my family, but I am already busy lining up speakers and a venue for next year's event in Jacksonville.

Thank you for supporting this ministry with your missions dollars. To my knowledge there is no other organization doing the work we do. As always feel free to contact me with any questions about our work or to learn how you can get more involved.

Musical Changes

by Cam Bedroske,

Change is in the air! This summer I brilliantly found a way to offer our musicians an evening practice schedule which will remain firm, even during Advent and Lent. After communicating with the current members, we have decided that Adult and Chime Choir will be on Monday night. Chime Choir will be 5:30-6:15 pm and Adult Choir 6:30 to 7:30 pm.

This option allows us to fellowship at Mid-week Meals and gives our organist a free sanctuary to rehearse on Wednesdays when Advent and Lent come upon us.

Looking forward to new members and former friendships renewed. We miss each other in the summer, so get ready, the first rehearsal is on Monday, September 12th. Join any time it fits and know that you may take breaks as needed too!

The Lord is Gracious and Compassionate, slow to anger and Abounding in Steadfast Love - Ps. 145:8, which is why we sing!

Grace Abounds, Cam Bedroske

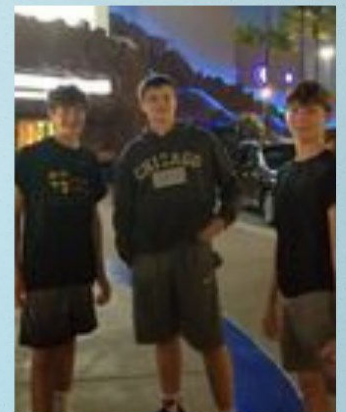

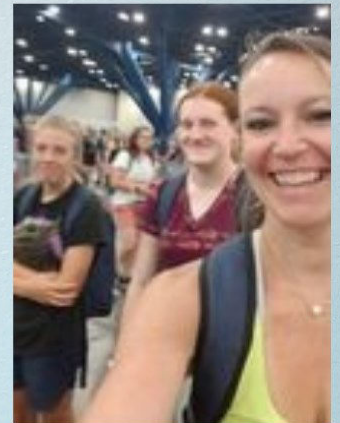

P.S. Children's Choir is still on Sunday Nights at 6:30-7:15 pm. That begins on Sunday, Sept 18th.

(Children's Choir is open to kids 2nd Gr- 8th Gr.) generally...but if you have a question, please call the office or Cam Bedroske directly)

In All Things

by Matt Toll, Youth Group

Eight youth from our congregation have just returned home from Houston, Texas where they attended our synod's National Youth Gathering. There they gathered with almost 20,000 other teenagers to be strengthened in their faith and equipped to face the challenges of this world knowing that Christ is in all things. This gathering's theme was 'In All Things' based on Colossians 1:15-20. The Gathering was a positive experience for all who attended. Relationships were strengthened. We worshiped our Savior each day. One morning we joined with sister congregation Resurrection Lutheran Church in Houston to learn more about their ministries and projects and got to lend a helping hand. We spent a lot of hours looking at God's story of all things, deepening our faith as we unpacked a lot of different ways that Christ is in all things. From Bible studies, topical sessions, servant events, mass events, and many onsite resources, there were so many opportunities and ways to grow in our walk with Jesus. Some of the key points we focused on were 1) Jesus doesn't just create in the beginning, He is creating in all things, 2) Jesus doesn't just reconcile me to God, He is reconciling all things, and 3) Jesus doesn't just reign over some things, He is reigning over all things. As we dug further into our theme verses, we discovered how Christ is creating, cleansing, redeeming, reconciling, dwelling, reigning, transforming, and returning to restore all things. The big takeaways from our daily mass events were 1) Jesus is for you, for your highs, for your lows...in all things, 2) Sin is a middle word, grace is a final word, 3) Jesus takes our sins and in exchange gives us His perfection, 4) Jesus makes strong and beautiful things out of broken things, and 5) Jesus is working in all things so that you can be absolutely certain that you are a child of God. What a gift it was for these teenagers to experience God in this way through the Gathering. Thank you to all those who supported us with your gifts of prayer, encouragement, time, and finances. The 2025 LCMS Gathering will be held in New Orleans.

Treasurer's Report

by Diane Flouro, Treasurer

As was mentioned during the voter's meeting in July, we are holding our own when it comes to finances. It was decided that I would make the best decisions as possible when paying additional amounts on the mortgage. The interest rate we are paying is low and we have some capital improvements that need to be done. As you can see by these last couple of months, we had to pay for the parking lot as well as the choir room floor. Rather than pay the mortgage off immediately, I will try to pay enough based on our finances, but also leave enough for these capital items that are coming up. The summer giving has gone down a bit, so if you would like to sign up for Joyful Response, just let me know. This tool is great for not only the church's budget, but your own budget as you will have a consistent amount withdrawn at a date you select. A win, win for all 😊

To the right, is a summary of the last couple of months of giving/expenses.

As always, if you would like any details behind the numbers, please feel free and reach out to me. My cell phone is (920) 420-5841 or email at flourodi@yahoo.com. Yours in Christ,

Diane Flouro, Treasurer
